

Moving Assist Ltd

We take the stress out of moving by assisting you declutter, pack, relocate and unpack at your new home.

Imagine walking into your new home at the end of moving day and seeing all your furniture placed as you had planned, your beds made and your possessions and clothes already unpacked and waiting for you to use.

Are you purchasing new furniture and need to arrange the disposal of some of your existing furniture? Do you need assistance with decluttering and the disposal of unwanted belongings?

Moving home can be stressful, but it doesn't have to be. At Moving Assist we manage the entire move or just parts of it without 'taking over'. We ensure you are the one making all the decisions about what to keep and what to part with.

Moving Assist Ltd

- Real Estate agents tell us the most important thing a vendor can do when preparing to sell their home is declutter.
- Assisting you to prepare your home for sale, including general house and garden maintenance by trained professionals. Our interior design consultants can transform its look and feel.
- If you need assistance with finding a real estate agent we can recommend you three separate real estate companies in your area we have worked with and you then select the agent that best fits your requirements.
- Decluttering and downsizing or packing for storage.
- Assistance with the sale of furniture and belongings. We ensure you receive the maximum return and we do not take a commission on the sale of your goods.
- Packing, moving, unpacking. We only use professional movers that we trust to take good care of your belongings. In the unlikely event that anything should go wrong, then we do have insurance for your belongings.
- If your company has relocated you from another country or location in New Zealand, then we can unpack everything for you, ready to use.
- Assistance with gifting to friends or family and donations of items to your preferred charities.
